You can remove it

But I don't recommend it

Here's why

Why Not?

1. You can choose an alternative Primary Email Address but still keep the old email address on your account
2. It can prevent you from creating a Duplicate LinkedIn Account with that old email address
3. It can prevent someone else using that old email address on another LinkedIn Account (possibly trying to impersonate you)
4. It can allow people Syncing their phone or email contacts with LinkedIn to find you

Exception...

If your previous employer asked you to remove it when you left them

Remember...

One email address – one LinkedIn Account ONLY
